

The Link That Binds

The home is the link that binds—around the home all our activities, our hopes and aspirations center. If there is any one incentive that goes to make us happy and hopeful it is a beautifully furnished home.

Let us help you to build such a home. Let us have the opportunity of showing how good our furniture is and why you will be benefited by buying your Furniture during the February Furniture Sale.

Kartley's

Not How Cheap, But How Good.

Is the slogan that should be borne in mind when buying furniture, as well as any other line of merchandise, and nothing more forcefully expresses this idea than the old saying—“buying cheap goods in this sense has never been the standard of this store. Cheap it is, however—meaning the best possible value at the various prices.”
